WHITE WINE - something special!

The wines in this section of the list are slight upgrades on our by the glass selection, a little different but well worth the extra - if you haven't tried these grapes we think they are all great choices.

5. Chenin Blanc, Lion Ridge, South Africa (3) V

A medium dry wine for those preferring this style of wine. Bursting with zesty lemon freshness and great to drink with all seafood and chicken. (13% abv)

6 Picpoul de Pinet M - Southern France (1) VE

A modern French wine. Picpoul means lip stinger in French and refers to the acidity in the wine. An outstanding wine that pairs with seafood and especially fish and chips. 12 1/2% vol

7. Tempranillo Blanco, Azabache, Spain (1)

A white Rioja. A truly outstanding wine, great to drink on its own or with any seafood. We have visited the vineyard and unhesitatingly recommend this wine. (12% abv)

8. Dart Valley Reserve, Sharpham, Devon, England (2) VE

Superb, full flavour and a great example of how good English wines have become. Every purchase supports jobs in Devon! A great summer wine for seafood. (11% abv)

9. Viognier, Laurent Miquel, South of France (2)

A regular award-winning wine and a personal favourite. Great with chicken and pork. Sometimes people don't order this wine for fear of pronouncing incorrectly - the easy way to pronounce this delicious wine is 'vee-on-yay' (13 1/2% abv)

10. Chablis, Patrairche Père et Fils, Burgundy, France (1) VE

A classic French wine. Made from Chardonnay grapes, pale yellow in colour, lemon and mineral on the nose, fresh and elegant on the palate. A great wine for those in the know. Great with seafood and all types of cheese. (12 1/2% abv)
